Our third year bringing the public closer to their dreams...

A4A: Appetite4Architecture!

Dreaming of a new Modernist house? Long admired the work of a local architect or designer? Thinking about architecture as a career? Here's your chance to break bread with prominent members of the Triangle's design community in an intimate, affordable small group setting.

A4A dinner events are rare opportunities to enjoy easy, informal discussions in an upscale dining environment. You will have direct access to some of the area's best residential architects and professionals. Explore architecture, homebuilding, the economy for design, furnishings, real estate - or anything else on your mind! There are no presentations or powerpoint slides -- just great conversations with award-winning cuisine.

All A4A dinners are at 18 Seaboard in Raleigh and begin at 6:30 pm. They include three sumptuous courses (appetizer, entree, dessert) from a pre-selected menu plus coffee/water/tea, tax, and gratuity. Vegetarian options are available.

Click photos for information about each architect and their houses.
