Today Only: 50% off Mod Squad Membership!

Financial support from Mod Squad members make many TMH programs possible. Membership is available at 50% off today only through 10pm. Normally $100 per year, today you can show support for TMH's missions of documentation, preservation, and promotion for only $50 per year. That gets you a Mod Squad hat, free or reduced admission to our one-house tours, discounts on other trips and tours, and best of all free admission to the Nowell's Architecture Movie Series. And yes, current members, this deal counts for renewals as well! Details.

News this Week:

New on the Market: Updates on North Carolina Modernist houses for sale or rent since last week.

TMH Founder George Smart speaks on Mayberry Modernism, North Carolina's legacy of outstanding Modernist residential architects and architecture.

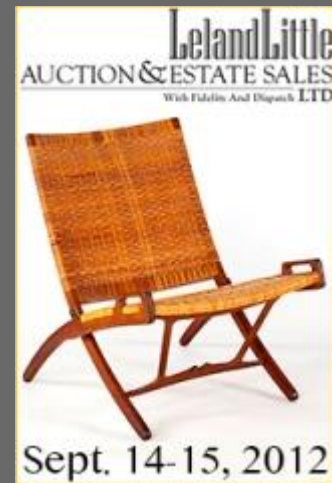

The Matsumoto Prize ceremony was last Thursday night. We had 19 Modernist houses this inaugural year, a real tribute to the incredible architecture and talented residential architects in North Carolina. Nearly 2100 people from all over the world voted online. The Jury selections: 1st place: John Reese, Banbury House; 2nd place: Mike Rantilla, 1804 Pictou Road; 3rd place: Vinny Petrarca, the GREENville House. These winners received prizes totaling $6,000. The People's Choice results: 1st place: Adam Sebastian, The Hole One House (photo at left); 2nd place: Scott Ogden, The Althea Way House; 3rd place: Will Alphin, The Taylor House. These winners each received a certificate and a Mod Squad membership.

- The A/V Geeks have over 24,000 old 16mm educational films rescued from landfills, dumpsters, closets, school libraries and provide an entertaining yet insightful glimpse into our past. With your support, more than 1,000 films (over 240 hours of content) from the A/V Geeks collection can be freely accessible over the internet. For every $500 raised they digitize one mile of film (nearly 2.5 hours of material)! Campaign ends August 31st.
