The suspense surrounding the results of the 1976 SCAIA Design Awards Program culminated this evening in Los Angeles, when Charles and Ray Eames, famous for their innovative furniture, museum exhibits, and other notable contributions, revealed the winners. The $3.50 per person entrance fee to the Bing Theater will provide an opportunity for the public to meet Chapter members and guests. Reservations for the catered reception in the Cafe (next door to the Bing Theater), cheese reception in the Sequoia Room, and the converted garage in Venice which are last minute preparations for the event. The public is cordially invited to join in the festivities and enjoy the works of the winning designers.
