

Today's News - Thursday, April 11, 2002

We're trying something new today with our most recent feature. Instead of clicking on "Home" above, it is the lead story in the newsletter. It is our first retail project - Pawsenclaws & Co., a make-your-own teddy bear store designed by JGA. It's not in SoHo or LoDo or SoCal; it is a prototype for a mall-based retailer intended to attract teddy bear lovers of all ages. And if all goes as planned, the Bearon and Bearoness will soon be moving into a mall near you.
