

Today's News - June 13, 2002

Today's new (click at left): New York City news, obviously, will be with us for awhile. Until Beyer Blinder Belle presents its proposals (later this summer), there will be a flurry of commentary. Lest we forget there are other big plans for the Big Apple...it is still in the running for the 2012 Olympics (we'll know the outcome in November). The New York Times spends Thursday in Europe (we're ready to pack!). The Royal Institute of British Architects awards the grand (and warns the small). And one story makes us grateful our typos have been minimal...
