

Today's News - July 12, 2002

Urban and suburban communities are a focus today, from Baltimore and Boston to Los Angeles and London - and then there are the "penguins" of Sydney. We're sure to see preservation battle lines drawn at 2 Columbus Circle. The Cooper-Hewitt has announced a few winners and its shortlist of National Design Awards nominees. There are exhibitions in Boston, New York, and Chicago that sound like they're worth checking out. And Muscovites will soon be able to "sample dishes from the Last Supper and watch temple adulteresses dance in Canaan."
