

Today's News - September 13, 2002

A very busy news day: A New York historian calls for development on a human rather than monumental scale at Ground Zero. – Two architects named to selection panel for WTC rebuilding plans. – Feng shui principles should be considered in the rebuilding plans. – The "glass ceiling" for women in architecture is taken to task. – Ito and Siza receive honors in Venice. – Two big names will design big towers at Canary Warf. – Are New Zealand homebuyers really to blame for the spate of leaky housing? – Architects may not like them, but modular homes are one answer to affordable housing. – Corporate green building...let's hope it's not just a fad. – Portland Art Museum spreads a wing. – A bookie plays the odds on the Stirling Prize. – Rockwell gets big play in Time (the magazine has a lot more images). – Pantone wants to own all the colors. – Gehry paved paradise, sort of - he cut down a tree for a parking lot. – An architectural/mathematical query...and much more.

To subscribe to the free daily newsletter click here

Obituary: Pedro Casariego, 75, architect who designed some of Madrid's most prominent skyscrapers \(AP\)- WorldNews.com

U.S. General Services Administration \(GSA\) Design Awards Deadline: October 31- GSA

New Deal for New York, Insists Prof. Wallace: Slash the Red Tape: historian makes the case for redevelopment on a human, rather than a monumental, scale.- New York Observer

Architect, Ex-Pol Join Rebuild Effort: tapped to help choose five new planning teams for Ground Zero. - Toshiko Mori; Richard Swett- New York Post

Architecture's glass ceiling: The dire statistics of women in architecture are clear...Anne Fougeron has proposed an international conference on women in design- San Francisco Chronicle

Architects honoured by Venice Biennale - Alvaro Siza Vieira; Toyo Ito- Globe and Mail (Canada)

Canary Wharf plans six new towers by Rogers and Pelli- The Architects' Journal (UK)

Designers Advocate Rebuilding Chi at Ground Zero Site: "A proper feng shui handling is really vital for resolution of the issues..."- Fox News

[Leaky houses blamed on stingy buyers says expert: \[others say\] it is ludicrous to blame house buyers for problems caused by the construction industry.](#)- New Zealand Herald

Bringing housing costs down: ...manufactured homes are among the few housing types that actually deliver on the promise of affordability By Arrol Gellner- San Francisco Chronicle

Three Reasons Some Corporations are Building Green By Robert F. Fox, AIA/Fox & Fowle Architects- Metropolis Magazine

Portland Art Museum will renovate North Wing: \$25 million for wing formerly known as the Masonic Temple - Ann Beha and Associates- The Oregonian

Place your bets for a bit of fun: Stirling prize, a kind of architectural game show with a £20,000 prize for the winner By Jonathan Glancey- The Guardian (UK)

[Creating Spaces: Architect David Rockwell wants you to feast — and feast and feast — your eyes on his work \[image\]](#)- Time Magazine

[Sensual modernism: San Francisco architect Anne Fougeron makes her mark on modern design \[images\]](#)- San Francisco Chronicle

Living Color: Pantone owns the monopoly on every tint, tone, and shade you've ever seen. Now it wants to control the colors you'll see in the future.- Wired

Frank Gehry and environmentalists tangle again \(AP\)- SF Gate

[What is it the first example - or at least the early ones - for a triangular architectural plan? \[images\]](#)- Nexus Network Journal

Note: Pages will open in a new browser window.
External news links are not endorsed by ArchNewsNow.com.
Free registration may be required on some sites.
Some sites may expire after a few days.

Yesterday's News