Today's News - October 30, 2003

Cloepfil has yet another museum on the boards. - Rome's newest church. - Historic buildings discovered under the grime. - Interview with the man selling Farnsworth House. - Sotheby's Farnsworth House listing has a wealth of images and information provided by the director of Building Technologies at Columbia University's Graduate School of Architecture. - Homes fighting fire. - Artful plans for Memphis riverfront. - Ergonomics go to church. - A 22-day Architecture Week in Miami. - Los Angeles reinventing itself, and the city's newest garden spot. - An Italian architect talks Italian style. - Weekend diversions: a book about Africa's secret Modernist city; miniatures with tales to tell in Sydney; and Shulman show in Palm Beach.

To subscribe to the free daily newsletter click here

- University of Michigan names architect for expansion of museum - Brad Cloepfil/Allied Works Architecture - Detroit News
- Preservation group discovers historic buildings: worth saving and could be the focus of development of another historic district - Sioux City Journal
- The 'almost nothing' house: Lord Palumbo's two-bedroom American home [Farnsworth House] - a unique Modernist icon - is to be sold. Caroline McGhie talks to him - Mies van der Rohe [images] - Telegraph (UK)
- Farnsworth House: 58 acres Southwest of Chicago - Mies van der Rohe's [images, fly-throughs] - Sotheby's
- Fighting Fire With Steel, Pools and Plaster: When California wildfires threaten a new home, design can be the first line of defense. By Joseph Giovannini [image] - New York Times
- 'Islets' to rise on river: Argentine design for Beale Street Landing wins - RTN Architects [image] - Commercial Appeal (Memphis)
- Hallelujah, Churches Go Ergonomic - ErgoWeb
- Architecture Week Miami spans 22 days starting Saturday, November 1 - Miami Herald
- Reinventing itself: The waiting is over. The center of the city is bursting with new lofts and luxury apartments, drawing new residents who are bringing it alive with promise. [images] - Los Angeles Times
- A bouquet for L.A.: In the lush gardens surrounding Walt Disney Concert Hall, Melinda Taylor creates an atmosphere of warmth and tranquility that entices visitors to linger a little longer. [images] - Los Angeles Times
- Interview: Gae Aulenti's Theater of Italian Design: the show, her work, and the lasting effects of Italian style. [images] - Metropolis Magazine
- Julius Shulman photos capture essence of design: an exhibition of 50 of the photographer's images - Palm Beach Daily News
- Iconic Arcs: Jubilee Church by Richard Meier & Partners [images] - ArchNewsNow
- Urban Aria: Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts - Diamond and Schmitt Architects [images] - ArchNewsNow

Note: Pages will open in a new browser window.
External news links are not endorsed by ArchNewsNow.com.
Free registration may be required on some sites.
Some sites may expire after a few days.

© 2003 ArchNewsNow.com