To subscribe to the free daily newsletter click here

Shards Of Many Untold Stories: In Place of Unity: A Melange of Unconnected Objects National Museum of the American Indian is better from the outside than it is from the inside. The exhibits are disheartening, their installations misproportioned...- Washington Post

Museum With an American Indian Vision: - a building whose initial design - by the Canadian architect (and Blackfoot) Douglas Cardinal - hints at what might have been...exhibits are where the problems begin in earnest. [images]- New York Times

Indian Museum's Appeal, Sadly, Only Skin-Deep: The museum feels like a trade show in which each group of Indians gets space to sell its founding myth and favorite anecdotes of survival. - Washington Post

Covering a Lot of Ground in a Little Space: National Museum of the American Indian. Wait till you see the landscape around it. Bringing rude nature to the tamed ground of the Mall takes guts. - EDAW- Washington Post

Coastal construction must meet limits of shrinking shoreline: As overbuilt Florida enters a decade-long cycle of storms, it's time to reassess its 'irresponsible' level of development By Beth Dunlop- Miami Herald

World Trade Center site designers say buildings will harmonize: The three architects for the buildings and memorial that will replace the World Trade Center came together for the first time Saturday... - Daniel Libeskind; Santiago Calatrava; Michael Arad- Salt Lake Tribune

N Y Firm Will Design 'Complement' to Wall: Vietnam Veterans Memorial Education Center to House Vietnam Artifacts - Polshek Partnership Architects; Ralph Applebaum Associates- Washington Post

A Place To Learn Science: Hartford desperately wants a bold architectural statement from its new science center. The finalists in an international design competition unveiled their futuristic models... - Moshe Safdie and Associates; Behnisch, Behnisch & Partner; Zaha Hadid; Cesar Pelli & Associates [slide shows]- Hartford Courant (Connecticut)

Parliament architect gives inside story: Brian Stewart, group chief executive of RMJM, will discuss the construction of the Holyrood complex at the Cockburn Association's annual lecture on October 26. - The Scotsman (UK)

Napa Residents to Gehry Project: Put a Cork in It: Opponents say proposed building on a wine estate would make local traffic bottlenecks even worse. - Los Angeles Times

No-thrill air travel has made the former TWA terminal obsolete, but still an architectural wonder: Airports just keep growing -- most are eternal construction sites and already too small when completed. By Ulf Meyer - Eero Saarinen; Gensler; Skidmore Owings & Merrill- San Francisco Chronicle

OCAD unveils a gamblng work of art -- itself. Will Alsop's "Flying Rectangle"...not hard to imagine it as a giant computer-generated spider...that may just scurry off to a more receptive city if we don't give it credit for helping Toronto become a much more interesting place. - Globe and Mail (Canada)

A transformation in concrete and wit: University of Toronto's...wave of new construction has changed the face of the campus and given the city some of the best buildings it has seen in ages. By Christopher Hume - Thom Mayne; Morphosis/Stephen Teagle; Peter Clewes; Saucier + Perrotte; Norman Foster; Behnisch, Behnisch & Partner; Diamond and Schmitt- Toronto Star

Dorm trying too hard to fit neighborhood: University Center at State and Congress is saddled with old ideas. It is not easy to write those words... By Blair Kamin - Antunovich Associates [image]- Chicago Tribune

Transformation and artifice: 2004 Venice Architecture Biennale: This year, the force is with Ireland, while a sometimes superficial joie de vivre informs the offerings of nations such as Great Britain, Japan and Denmark, the United States is deeply forgettable, and Germany boldly tackles nowhere-land. By Hugh Pearman [images]- HughPearman.com

Viewpoint: The Thrill of Excess: The transformation of the (Shanghai) skyline is a dizzying spectacle...even architects have a tough time remembering who exactly did what... By Christopher Choa/HLW- Time Asia

The New 'Eiffel Tower' Of Chicago: The celebrated Chicago design landscape has a new addition: the sparkling - even startling - Millennium Park. - CBS Sunday

Metamorphosis and Transcending Hype: Observations from the Field: The Venice...
Biennale offers a message of optimism and exuberant anticipation for architecture in a post-9/11 world -- for the most part. By Margaret Helland, FAIA [images]