Ode to lost Bunshaft house.— Katrina brings on a building blitz of new communities (the good news); "We are a lot of right-brained guys, nothing too artistic" (the bad news). — Libeskind's 911 memorial in Italy. — Q&A with Flight 93 memorial architect. — Traditional Native American architecture fits with the modern. — Chipperfield gets another U.S. museum. — Tschumi sees blue in Manhattan. — Montreal metro stations worth a look. — Towering plans for Miami's Fontainebleau. — Bahrain trade center to be powered by wind. — An old Manhattan hotel tastefully transformed for the homeless. — An Arkansas museum offers landscape challenges. — Glaciers inspire museum expansion in Alaska. — Tribute to man who brought Olmsted to life.

To subscribe to the free daily newsletter, click here

A Rush to Set Up U.S. Housing for Storm Survivors: The government is beginning what urban planners are calling one of the biggest bursts of federal housing development in United States history. — New York Times

Libeskind-designed Sept. 11 Memorial Unveiled in Italy [image] - ChallengerNKY.com

Flight 93 memorial emphasizes contemplation: Q&A with Paul Murdoch. By Patricia Lowry - Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Modern architecture employs traditional designs: Throughout Canada and the United States, traditional First Nations designs are being incorporated into modern architecture with greater frequency. — Lubor Trubka; Minten & Stewart - Indian Country Today

British architect will oversee St. Louis Art Museum expansion — David Chipperfield - St. Louis Post-Dispatch

Seeing the Blues on the Lower East Side: Bernard Tschumi has a portfolio of high-profile buildings to his credit, but he had never designed a residential structure. [image] - New York Times

Underground Showcase for Artists, Architects: An endless variety of forms, colours and textures shape the subterranean experience — Victor Prus; Dan Hanganu; Pierre Mercier; Pierre Boyer-Mercier; Patrice Poirier; Papineau, Gerin-Lajoie, Le Blanc, Edwards [images] - Montreal Gazette

Bahrain World Trade Centre to be powered by wind — W S Atkins and Partners Overseas [image] - Gulf Daily News (Bahrain)

An Elegant Old Hotel Gives New Lives to the Homeless -- Howard Greenley (19094); Beyer Blinder Belle; Common Ground - Gotham Gazette

Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art Site Unique And Challenging — Peter Walker; Moshe Safdie - The Morning News (Arkansas)

Hundreds attend University of Alaska Museum expansion opening -- Hammel, Green and Abrahamson (HGA) - Juneau Empire (Alaska)

Sept. '05 Build Business: Marketing from the Inside Out

Note: Pages will open in a new browser window. External news links are not endorsed by ArchNewsNow.com. Free registration may be required on some sites. Some pages may expire after a few days.