High hopes: Four years on, there is an architectural renaissance in New York that would have been difficult to imagine in the weeks that followed 9/11...once again becoming a city where adventurous architecture can happen. — Fonler; Getry; Calatrava; Meier; Pelli; Libeskind; Childs; High Line; etc.- Financial Times (UK)

Preservation's call to arms: Some of the Swiss area's most important architectural treasures are in danger...they may soon be altered beyond all recognition or completely demolished. By Kevin Nance- Chicago Sun-Times

Editorial: Urban planning goes awry again: State Government's decision to dump...its green belt strategy for two big suburban regions...is a setback for attempts to manage the way the metropolitan area develops. Politics has triumphed, and Sydney is the loser.- Sydney Morning Herald

Building industry "lawless":...plagued by a culture of civil disobedience, coercion, intimidation, threatening behaviour and contempt for the law. Building Industry Taskforce...will be replaced by a new Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC)- Sydney Morning Herald

Jury weighs four bold designs: Which of world's top architects is about to change the face of downtown Edmonton?...[with] $40-million expansion to the Edmonton Art Gallery— Randall Stout; Will Alsop; Zaha Hadid; Arthur Erickson- The Edmonton Journal (Canada)

Opinion: We must let architects be bold:...a decidedly urban, unabashedly European feel...Pratt Hill is a model to which other new developments should aspire. By William Morgan- Friedrich St. Florian- Providence Journal (Rhode Island)

Architect Offers Changes to 9/11 Flight 93 Memorial "Crescent of Embrace": Paul Murdoch said he is "somewhat optimistic" that the spirit of the design could be maintained. "It's a disappointment there is a misinterpretation and a simplistic distortion of this..."— Los Angeles Times

Ballpark of a Future Past: The new A's ballpark in Oakland may inject a dollop of real design innovation into baseball's wrongheaded fixation with nostalgia...— Brad Schrock/360 Architecture- SF Weekly (San Francisco)

Taliesin teardown ruffles feathers: Toronto student's project at center of controversy:...has brought anxiety and confusion to the Toronto fellowship arrangement, but has not ended it. —Joy Charbonneau [image]- Arizona Republic

Rambert Dance Company to build new HQ in Upper Ground — Allies and Morrison [image]- London SE1

Getty Villa’s renovations nearly done: Eight years after closing for [$275-million] renovation and five years later than planned...almost ready to meet the public. — Machado and Silvetti Associates; Denis L. Kurutz; kornrandolph- Los Angeles Times

Lahore City Museum to be established in Tollington Market: The historic 141-year-old building has been restored completely — Sajjad Kausar; Kamil Khan Mumtaz; Nayyer Ali Dada [image]- Daily Times (Pakistan)

Green roof for a green museum: California Academy of Sciences will be a growing concern in more ways than one;...hearty plants will make up the new building's entire roof, a 2.5-acre undulating, self-sustaining cover. — Renzo Piano; Gordon Chong [image]- San Francisco Chronicle

Holcim Foundation for Sustainable Construction - Europe competition winners announced - - Centola & Associati; Ingenhoven Architekten; J. Mayer H. [links to images]- Holcim Foundation

"Inventioneering Architecture" exhibition and lecture series on Swiss architectural teaching at California College of the Arts (CCA), San Francisco, October 3-27 — swissnex- Architecture Radio

Janko the architect: "Marcel Janko - Inter-Disciplinary Artist: His Planning and Architectural Work" at the Bauhaus Center gallery in Tel Aviv...a presentation of architectural works known only to a few, even in art and architecture circles. By Esther Zandberg- Ha'aretz (Israel)

To subscribe to the free daily newsletter...click here