The Triangle area of North Carolina is the third largest concentration of modernist houses in America. We have more than anywhere except LA and Chicago. Triangle Modernist Houses and its parent nonprofit Triangle Modernist Archive, Inc. advocate for and build interest in preserving modernist residential design. We are an early-warning system for endangered moderns, an exclusive source for modernist house tours, an extensive detailed archive of North Carolina architects, and knowledgeable advocates for new modernist construction.

New Architect Profile: Charlotte's Murray Whisnant.
