Hello folks!

This Wednesday, April 27, 6-8pm: Thirst4Architecture! Cash bar Happy Hour networking at Natty Greene's in Raleigh. Open to the design-lovin' public! Co-hosted with Goodnight Raleigh. Details here.

Sponsored by the new blog at:

$20 tickets to Preservation Durham's May 7 Duke Park Tour are available on the TMH website at a discount (no credit card fees) and an even lower price ($18) for Mod Squad members. Get 'em now, because our box office closes May 5 and tickets the day of the tour are $25 per person.

←Some of the Triangle's most dedicated architecture adventurers went this weekend on TMH's 2nd trip to Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater. Is Wright's most famous house on your bucket list? Want to go with us next time? Send an email to get on the waiting list.

The Roundabout Art Collective, 2110 Hillsborough St. across from the Bell Tower at NCSU, opened on April 1 with 25 artists' work, including paintings, photos, pottery, jewelry, sculpture, and fabric art. It's a fun, vibrant space that used to be the College Music and Pawn Shop. Check out the Jackson Pollock floor! Phone 747-9495.

Frank Konhaus and Ellen Cassilly of Cassilhaus are finally selling two unused sinks left over from their house construction. Two elegant LACAVA LUCE 5101 solid surface sinks new in original boxes for sale. Sinks only, no cabinet, white/single faucet hole, drain required. Paid $629 each, selling for $449 each or $800 for both. Contact Frank at fkonhaus@kontek.com.

TMH's Pioneering Black Architects in North Carolina was picked up as a feature in the Spring 2011 Recent Past Preservation Network magazine.

←The 2011 AIA Triangle Awards were last Thursday night. Congratulations to Kenneth Hobgood for winning two residential design honors, shown at left: The Aldridge House, and The Lee Jones House 2. See the list of 2011 AIA Triangle awards and previous years here.

The NC Museum of Art has a cool auction event coming up May 21. The promise a variety of price points from items for the beginning collector to extraordinary works of art for the seasoned collector. Lots of fun...GREAT after party planned. Tickets are on sale now ($125 each).

NEW ON THE MARKET

2010 - The Matthias and Caroline Schönberg Addition, 4015 Arborway, Charlotte. Designed by Toby Witte. Went on the market in early 2011. For sale, $1,150,000, here. Initially priced at $1.3M.

Have a great week!

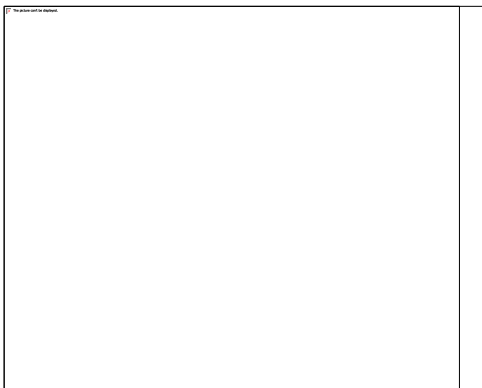

Kind regards,

George
