The Personal Collection
Mary Jo and Dick

June 15, 2012

For decades, architect Louis Kahn's long-awaited monument to Franklin D. Roosevelt is completed (above) on New York's Roosevelt Island.

Charlotte architects Marley Carroll and Murray Whisnant, both profiled on TMH, take very different points of view in the development of a large downtown site.

Richard and Dion Neutra VDL Studio/Residence in Los Angeles is now in pretty bad shape. To give to its preservation effort, send checks to Cal Poly Pomona Foundation with "Neutra VDL" on the memo at: Carrie Geurts, College of Environmental Design, Cal Poly Pomona, 3801 W. Temple Avenue, Pomona, CA 91768. A limited number of prints of Julius Schulman's iconic photos of the house are available as well.

About 350 people turned out during nine days to TMH's Modernism At Risk exhibition at the AIA Center in Raleigh. See what you missed here.

Mary Jo and Dion collected Modernism over decades. Now they have an amazing collection for auction this Friday.

ReSpace Competition challenges participants to design a small, unique, and transportable structure with reuse materials at the core, from concept to construction. The winning design will be constructed 48 hours by Habitat for Humanity Wake County using materials from their Raleigh ReStore. The structure will be sold and proceeds will benefit Habitat for Humanity. For more information, or to register, visit www.ReSpace.org by June 15.
