News this Week:

The Burroughs Wellcome Headquarters Tour, aka the Elion-Hitchings Building, Saturday, October 20, 9am-1pm. This iconic Modernist building in Research Triangle Park has not been open for public tour for decades. But now, by special arrangement, you'll get inside one of architect Paul Rudolph's most compelling achievements, this award-winning tiered building completed in 1971. Part of the 1983 movie "Brainstorm" starring Natalie Wood was filmed there. Details and advance discount tickets.

Do you have an iPhone? Are you tired of typing our long URL into your iPhone? TMH's free new app is a simple portal to

Paschal House Petition: In August, TMH issued a National Endangerment Alert for Raleigh's 1950 George and Beth Paschal House, a masterpiece by early NCSU School of Design faculty member Jim Fitzgibbon. Since then, TMH has learned the Paschal heirs have solicited a proposal to deconstruct the house, so the clock is ticking on Raleigh's most important endangered mid-century modern. Help save the long-empty and still-savable property through learning the facts and signing the petition here. Let folks know you've signed - and encourage them to follow you - through Twitter and Facebook. Overpricing the property (as it has been for five years) keeps it vacant and vulnerable. You can help influence whether this iconic Modernist home is saved - or goes "toes up" like the Catalano House did in 2001.

The National Park Service (NPS) has been trying to demolish the Gettysburg Cyclorama Building, a nationally significant structure designed by renowned architect Richard Neutra, for more than 10 years. They continue to break the rules to get rid of it, despite a court order to consider the best (and cheapest) alternative, mothballing the facility for future use. The Recent Past Preservation Network has accused the NPS of preparing a recent study out of compliance with preservation legislation. Alas, the attorneys who helped with the lawsuit have pointed out wherein the NPS has again failed to comply with the law. Absent an injunction, they are actually free to demolish. Please add your name to the 4000+ people so far from around the world petitioning to save this building. More details. History of the decade-long fight to save the Cyclorama.

Rescued: 2619 Meacham Road, designed by Sumner Winn in Chapel Hill. Set on 12.34 beautiful acres with a pool, the house was on the market and vacant since May 2008. New owners Jean Greer and Scott Radway connected with the Modernist house through TMH's Endangered List and start work this week on restoration.

- On September 17 the Phoenix Historic Preservation Commission voted unanimously to recommend Landmark designation for the endangered David and Gladys Wright House, designed by his father, Frank Lloyd Wright. The recommendation will go to the City Council in November. If approved by Council, Landmark designation triggers an automatic three-year delay on demolition. The huge numbers of letters and signatures definitely have an impact but the goal is at least 25,000 signatures as soon as possible. To add your name to saving this house, visit the Frank Lloyd Wright Building Conservancy website. View the CBS News report.
