News this week:

TMH is five years old! With 31 tours and a 45 Gig free digital archive, our mission of documentation, preservation, and promotion has been made possible by hundreds of volunteers, sponsors, homeowners, and thousands of tour participants - each sharing a love of Modernist architecture.

Thanks to you and supporters across the world, Phoenix's endangered David and Gladys Wright House, designed by David's famous father, architect Frank Lloyd Wright, has been sold to a new owner who won't tear it down. You made the difference! Your signatures on the petition helped generate publicity to attract a buyer.

Architecture for Humanity is soliciting funds to assist in the rebuilding of Hurricane Sandy damage.

The RTP Foundation, which manages Research Triangle Park, plans to unveil its new master plan and announce the selection of a private partner for park redevelopment.

Professor David Hill of NCSU recently wrote a great article on Modernist magazine house plans of the 1950's.

TMH Archive updates: Many more photos for Haywood Newkirk's projects in Wilmington; more information on George Matsumoto's projects; updated Lee Butler photos by Trey Thomas; and William Deitrick photos by Orlando Harris.

Sci-Arc has unearthed a wonderful 1976 lecture by Harwell Hamilton Harris.

Congratulations to Virginia Faust, Leilani Carter, Catherine Westergaard, and Sharon Glazener who received TMH Volunteer Appreciation awards last month. Each has given not just dozens but hundreds (or in Catherine's case, thousands) of hours contributing to the TMH archives, assisting with tours, and make the organization successful for the 50,000+ hits TMH gets every month and the 7,500+ people who have attended events. Thank you all so very much!

New on the Market

Check our exclusive list of Modernist houses for sale. Some have been on the market since last week. Keeping these houses occupied is the best way to save them for the future!

After over 100 years in business, Nowell's Contemporary Furniture is closing down in about two weeks. Nowell's has been our strongest supporter these last five years, and we wish Jerry and Kit Nowell well as they discover what's next on their journey. So get over there and score some great deals before the doors close.

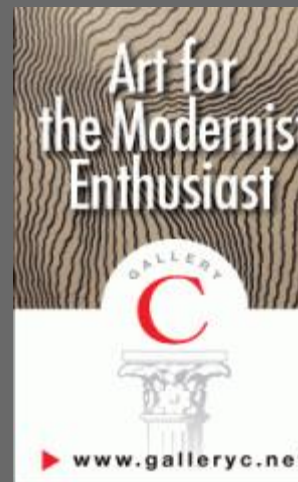

Coming Up:

Support Modernist Preservation:

Paschal House Petition: The heirs of Raleigh's 1950 Paschal House, a masterpiece by early NCSU School of Design faculty member Jim Fitzgibbon, have solicited a proposal to deconstruct the house, so the clock is ticking on Raleigh's most important endangered mid-century modern. The house features so many of the much-loved Modernist elements: a low-sloping roof line with deep eaves; an earthy blend of local granite, warm-toned woods and cork floors; high-ceilinged living room featuring a massive fireplace with sunken hearth; the use of passive solar climate control; a planned landscape that includes majestic mature oaks; custom art details, such as unique wooden gates and iron outdoor sculptures; floor to ceiling glazing in living room that brings the outside in; a thoughtful separation of public and private living spaces; private courtyards screened from the street. Overpricing the property (as it has been for five years) keeps it vacant and vulnerable. You can help influence whether this iconic home is saved - or goes vanishes like the Catalano House did in 2001. Help save the long-empty and still-savable property through signing the petition here.
