NCMH's Wish List - Be a Genie!

- The McGinnis-Bagwell House is an unusual 1920's Modernist house in Raleigh's Hayes Barton. McGinnis was from New England. Know anything about him, or a house he might have seen, most likely, an example in some magazine or book of the day? If so, contact Catherine Bishir.

- Got old architecture magazines? We're looking for any issues of Architectural Record, Architectural Digest, House + Home, Arts + Architecture, AIA Journal, Architectural Forum, Architecture, and Progressive Architecture from any year. Drop them off at AIA North Carolina or contact us for pickup from anywhere in North Carolina. You'll get a very nice tax deduction.
- Thanks to your contributions so far, we've got over 1200 magazines in queue and are looking for scanning volunteers starting December 8. Sign up for 2-4 hour shifts in our Durham office near RTP. Weekdays, weeknights, weekend choices all available. Please reply with your name, phone number, and available times and dates. Every volunteer gets to take a few of these beautiful architecture magazines back home, plus we have great music, food, and the scanning will be paired with a nice belgian ale or pinot noir, if you wish!
