- Architecture We Love. One week ago, NCMH learned that Milton Small's masterful Modernist office building at 3515 Glenwood Avenue was doomed. According to Triangle Business Journal, a new building is on the drawing boards and a demolition permit is imminent. With no historic status, and no likelihood of getting status in the short term, there is nothing anyone could do to stop the bulldozers ... until this happened. So now we have to put up or shut up, fellow Modernists. It's go time. You have 90 days.
- From Architects and Artisans: Frank Lloyd Wright's SC Johnson Research tower to open to the public after being closed for 32 years.
- Rudolph Schindler's only church is brilliantly raised from the ruins in California.
- The Crabtree Jones House - the oldest home still in residential use in Raleigh - is settling in to its new spot. See it Saturday, May 31 from 10am-4pm and Sunday, June 1 from 1-4pm, with a suggested donation of $10 for still-needed repairs. Contact Preservation North Carolina for details and directions.

THE NCMH LEGAL DEFENSE FUND

- Do you think it's OK for the City to issue a building permit then let a neighbor act to take it away, virtually condemning an yet-completed house? This is happening now in Oakwood, and the NCMH Legal Defense Fund \(LDF\) is working to actively defend this and other Modernist houses under threat. Starting today, LDF t-shirts are on sale here - or to volunteer to be an LDF fundraising event host this summer, contact George Smart at 919.740.8407.
