Despite a clear Superior Court ruling that she had no legal standing to begin with, Oakwood's Gail Wiesner has filed to take the Cherry/Gordon case to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. This will cost City of Raleigh taxpayers even more money to defend, hits the cash-strapped Cherries up for another round of legal costs, and further divides Oakwood, which had just started to heal only a few weeks ago. What do you think about her decision? Tell us about it via a) reply or b) on the NCMH Facebook page.

The NCMH Masters Gallery has had a complete upfit. Check out the new format covering over 5000 houses by the masters of 20th century residential architecture. Just pick any one of the Masters to see their residential work. Soon, all the NC Architects pages will have the same new format.

Thanks to all the sponsors and Mod Squad members for attending our annual Mod Squad/Sponsor party last weekend.

Over 70 people attended the first NCMH movie last week: Fully Awake, the story of Black Mountain College. Thanks to Margret Kentgens-Craig, author of The Bauhaus in America, for introducing the film.
