NCMH is a North Carolina 501C3 nonprofit educational archive for the documentation, preservation, and promotion of Modernist houses. Visit NCMH at www.ncmodernist.org.

As you make decisions on year-end charitable giving, please consider a gift to NCMH. From recognizing innovation through the Matsumoto Prize to educating the next generation of Modernist architects through Project BauHow to a victory for the Legal Defense Fund to updating the award-winning NC Architects Archives and Masters Gallery, our volunteers and staff work hard all year long.
to protect the architecture you love. Click here, and thank you! Donations are tax-deductible; we are a 501C3 nonprofit.

Plus, under a recently reinstated tax law, those 70 1/2 or older may move up to 100,000 from your IRA directly to a qualified charity without paying taxes. Known as the IRA charitable rollover, this expires December 31. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, and the transfer may be made in addition to any other charitable giving you have planned. Contact us at 919-740-8407.

Nominations are open for the next architect to be included in the NCMH Masters Gallery. Having covered the mid-century Modernists, we're moving on to a rather bleak period for Modernism, the 1970's and 1980's. Who's your favorite Modernist architect from that period? Reply with an architect or designer with a national reputation and lots of Modernist houses 1970-1990.

- Want to help NCMH research houses in Los Angeles, Asheville, Hickory, or Wilmington?
- Donate copies of GA (Global Architecture) Houses magazine. We'll pick them up or provide for shipping.
- NCMH's online archive of AIA North Carolina magazines is almost complete; help us find the final three issues: Fall 2003, Jan-Feb 1983, and Mar-Apr 1983.

Location Scout Carlene Cearley (919-616-3951) seeks Raleigh/Durham area Modernist houses for catalog item photo shoots.
