THE NEWS

The 2015 George Matsumoto Prize submissions are in, and while the killer jury deliberates, you get to decide the People's Choice Awards! From Weaverville to Wilmington, see photos and videos of this year's 14 houses and vote for your favorite.

Limit one vote per email address. Addresses that are or appear to be machine-generated or fraudulent will not be counted. However, if you want to vote more than once, say from a home email and a work email, that's fine. NCMH's decisions on vote eligibility are final. Vote counts will not be released; only the recipients of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. The deadline for voting is June 30, 5pm EST. Many thanks to Leland Little Auctions for underwriting this year's Prize. See photos and videos of this year's 14 houses and vote for your favorite!

Alert: Case Study House #18 is for sale as a possible teardown.

The most expensive Modernist house in the world. And it can be yours for just half a bill....ion.

Even at seven years old, this Fallingwater animation is still awesome.

This Milton Small masterpiece at 912 Williamson Drive is scheduled for an interior renovation by Hilary Farr and the crew of Love It or List It. This could be very good or quite bad for one of North Carolina's best examples of mid-century Modernism. The construction permits are done, and the original appliances and original cabinetry were up for sale on Craigslist Raleigh. Will we Love It or Hate It? Stay tuned.

Dead Mod Walking 2015: The old gal's still standing but we don't know for how long. Please help NCMH monitor when Milton Small's masterful 3515 Glenwood building, first photo, receives the demolition permit online here. The site was approved last year for a three-story 72,963 square foot replacement, second photo.
