THE NEWS

Thursday, November 19, 6pm: 50 Years in the Making: Award-winning architect Frank Harmon celebrates his retirement with oysters and champagne at this month's Thirst4Architecture at the building he designed, the AIA North Carolina Center for Architecture and Design, 14 East Peace Street, Raleigh NC. Special guest: Sepi Saidi, PE, speaking on Successful Entrepreneurship: The Value of Culture and Diversity. Charles Murphy will serve oysters harvested the day before on the coast of North Carolina. And Frank will thank his friends, colleagues, and clients for a glorious 50 year career in the making of architecture. NCMH's monthly T4A design networking events are sponsored in the Triangle by Emilie Huin/Triangle Modern Homes, specializing in the sale of Modernist homes throughout the Triangle. Free. Details.

- New in the NCMH Masters Gallery archives: E. Fay Jones of Arkansas.
- A Futuro house, amazingly restored!
- Last Saturday, NCMH hosted the southern US premiere of Modern Ruin, a documentary about the 1964 New York World's Fair Pavilion.
- NCMH announces an alliance with Triangle ArtWorks, a support organization and resource for the entire Triangle arts industry with local and national arts industry news, as well as job openings and networking and educational events.

One of North Carolina's endangered Modernist houses is back on the market after nearly being rescued. The 1951 A. M. and Ruth Fleishman Residence, 2614 Morganton Road, Fayetteville NC. Designed by Greensboro's Edward Loewenstein. Jim Brandt was the draftsman. Built by Ed Rynick. It has been vacant for several years but appears recoverable. The price has been lowered and appears to be negotiable. Details in the Endangered Section.
