in awards, a killer jury, and state, national, and international recognition and publicity. The 2016 George Matsumoto Prize is open to anyone with primary design responsibility for a completely built, from-the-ground-up, single-family Modernist house of at least 800 heated sf with a CO on or after January 1, 2011. The house must be located in North Carolina; the designer/architect can be from anywhere. Renovations, additions, multi-family, or any house that won a past Matsumoto Prize jury or public award are ineligible.

The Jury:

Ray Kappe, Los Angeles * Alison Brooks, London
Joshua Prince-Ramus, New York * Harry Wolf, Los Angeles
Charles McMurray, Miami * Nathan Crowley, Los Angeles

Entering your work for the 2016 George Matsumoto Prize shows off your most creative residential designs and exposes the public to the architecture they really love. Submitting for the Prize is one of the best returns on investment for exposure to Modernist fans and potential clients across the state and the country. Submissions open May 1 and close May 23. Details, dates, and submission requirements.

Service notice: Starting Thursday, April 21, NCMH will be moving, digitally, to a new server to dramatically increase download speed and reduce downtime. For example, our largest file, which takes 4 hours to download now, will take only 5 minutes. However, the site and ALL EMAIL will likely be down Thursday, Friday, and possibly through the weekend during the changeover. Reach George Smart at gsmart@nc.rr.com during the transition.

DEFENSE FUND

Sadly, the Cherry/Gordon case lives on in Raleigh. Neighbor Gail Wiesner, having lost her case in Wake County Superior Court, having lost again at the North Carolina Court of Appeals, filed yet another appeal, this time to the North Carolina Supreme Court. Want to help with the enormous legal costs of defending this house? The NCMH Legal Defense Fund (LDF) provides technical assistance, funding for legal representation, and other support services to endangered Modernist houses in North Carolina as determined by NCMH. From preserving historically significant Modernist houses to standing for due process for new Modernist houses under threat, the LDF actively advocates for North Carolina's great legacy of Modernist residential architecture. Help find the missing recording: Frank Lloyd Wright spoke in Raleigh in May of 1950. At the time it was the biggest architecture lecture in history, with over 5,000 attending in then-new Reynolds Coliseum on the campus of NC State University. We've heard that this landmark talk got recorded, and we're on the hunt for a copy. If you've ever heard of someone who taped it, or you've got any other clues, please contact George Smart at george@ncmodernist.org or 919.740.8407.

Purge, purge, purge! Got old architecture magazines in your office, basement, or attic? NCMH's Colossus Archive welcomes donations of mainstream architecture magazines especially Architectural Forum, House + Home, GA Houses, Residential Architect, Metropolis, Arts+Architecture, Architect, AIA Journal, Architecture, and Progressive Architecture. Please reply to this email or call George Smart at 919.740.8407 to arrange free pickup or shipping.

Needin' some lovin': The classic 1951 A. M. and Ruth Fleishman Residence, 2614 Morganton Road, Fayetteville NC. Designed by Greensboro's celebrated architect Edward Loewenstein. Jim Brandt was the draftsman. Built by Ed Rynick. This endangered Modernist house, on the market for three years, has recently been cleaned up and you can really see the masterful design. Additional photos. Details in For Sale, Endangered Section.

Now at the Bechtler Museum in Charlotte NC. The House that Modernism Built presents mid-20th century art alongside furniture, textile and ceramic holdings on loan from various institutions including Eames Office, Herman Miller Archives, the NCSU Gregg Museum of Art & Design and private collectors. The exhibition illustrates how the modern aesthetic shaped people's lives during the 20th century including groundbreaking choices of material and technique by Victor Vasarely, Zoltan Kemeny, Kenneth Noland, Roy Lichtenstein, Charles and Ray Eames, Alexander Girard, and Buckminster Fuller. Details.

Phil Freelon Exhibition: The NCSU African American Cultural Center is hosting his design work in the gallery on the second floor of the Witherspoon Student Center through June 30th.
