Lego knows no bounds. Hat tip to Virginia Faust.

At an AIA-New York Cocktails and Conversation event earlier this month, a new drink was invented - the Frank Harmon (our Director of National Affairs). Here's the recipe. Store Rhum Agricole in freezer. In a rocks glass, squeeze in half a lime and drop in husk. Add 1/2 ounce Demarara sugar and muddle to paste. Let sit. Add 1 1/2 ounces cold rum and two sprigs each mint and arugula. Gently remuddle. You'll soon be designing brilliantly, speaking eloquently, and wearing a stylish hat.

The New Modernism Series, a partnership between Curbed and DOCOMOMO-US covers some unique buildings you might not be so familiar with.

This Wednesday, June 1, 5pm. Want to reach more clients? Sponsors of NCMH reach thousands of design-oriented people who share your passion for Modernist architecture. NCMH's website and programming are recognized nationally with 12 local, state, and national awards. To learn more, join us for a sponsor information party at the stunning new Durham Hotel rooftop bar (photo, left) in downtown Durham. Free! RSVP with name(s), company, and phone number to Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

From the News and Observer: Five mid-century Raleigh Modernist houses with a hopeful future, by Mike Welton. The bottom line: if you truly want to save your family's Modernist house for the future, there's nothing better than a preservation easement.

Yes, you can get married in the Farnsworth House, among other sites! Hat tip to Virginia Faust.

From DOCOMOMO-US: Paul Rudolph's Blue Cross/Blue Shield building (1960) in Boston is under threat. The city is considering five proposals from firms to develop a prominent site next door. Four out of the five proposals pose no threat to the Rudolph designed building and one proposal is unclear of its effects on the building. The proposal from developer Trans National plans to demolish the building during the second phase of construction. Candidates will be interviewed in the beginning of June. Docomomo US and Docomomo US/New England are monitoring the situation as it unfolds.
