residential Modernist architecture. In ten years, we've exposed tens of thousands of people to the brilliance of Modernist design; created America's largest website for residential modernist houses; made 80 years of architecture magazines accessible to the public, many for the first time; saved amazing houses you love from the bulldozer (or the lawsuit); helped rural high school drafting students; created the Matsumoto Prize, the highest honor in the state specifically for Modernist houses; and hosted hundreds of movies, networking happy hours, and exciting local, state, national, and international tours. You can support NCMH by showing up for one of our many parties, movies, or tours, joining the Mod Squad, having your business sponsor an event, or simply making a tax-deductible donation. We're already working on great project for the next 10 years!
