Virginia Architecture Week kicks off with Sculpting Space: Connecting Art to Architecture, April 9, 6:00-8:00 p.m, in Alexandria Talk by Raleigh sculptor Matt McConnell at the Torpedo Factory Art Center; and Native Places - A Presentation on Travel Sketches, April 13, 6:00-8:30 pm by Raleigh architect Frank Harmon at the Northern Virginia Fine Arts Association at the Athenaeum.

New Book available April 18: Creating Living Country, by Chloe Grimshaw and Luke White. With a greater appetite for “authentic” experiences, working practices, and creative inspiration, UK metropolitan talents are setting up studios far from the madding crowd.

Combining a more relaxed lifestyle with budding entrepreneurship, and capturing it all on social media, a new generation of young creatives celebrates this new approach to a quintessentially British shelter, a new breed of artists and creatives—from photographers to textile designers, from ceramicists to musicians—who make their homes, work, and lifestyle away from the city lights.
