

From: North Carolina Modernist Houses
<george=ncmodernist.org@mail28.atl91.mcsv.net> on behalf of North Carolina Modernist Houses <george@ncmodernist.org>
Sent: Monday, September 25, 2017 9:03 AM
To: george@ncmodernist.org
Subject: AIANC Kamphoefner Prize + Gold Medal / Eero Saarinen Movie / 10th+Terrace SIP

Visit www.ncmodernist.org or www.usmodernist.org for full access to our extensive archives of North Carolina and national Modernist architecture. See past newsletters.

View this email in your browser

Architecture You LOVE

Monday, September 25, 2017

North Carolina Modernist Houses (NCMH) is a 501C3 nonprofit educational archive that provides donors, volunteers, and advocates the information and organization they require to passionately engage the documentation, preservation, and promotion of North Carolina's residential Modernist architecture. Learn more at our website.

Sponsors/Support

News

Events/Tours

modern-mailbox.com
Handmade in the USA

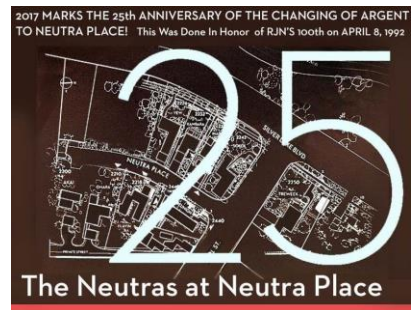

Vacancy, not development, is the enemy of mid-century Modern. Preserve the architecture you love by buying or renting! Visit NCMH's exclusive statewide North Carolina list.

The fate of building by Mies-protege Milton Small, one of North Carolina's most celebrated Modernist architects, is up in the air. Owned by the City of Durham, there are four general plans for redevelopment but two involve tearing it down. NCMH and Preservation Durham have teamed up to steer the conversation in a direction that doesn't involve

Thursday, October 5, 5pm, NCMH Sponsor Information Party (SIP) at 10th and Terrace, join us on the rooftop bar ten floors up at the new Residence Inn, 616 South Salisbury Street, Raleigh. Learn about NCMH's lineup of sponsorship opportunities for 2018. RSVP directly to Rebekah Laney, 865-414-5800 or rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

Dion Neutra, the last of the architect Neutras, presides over a couple of block parties at the end of his LA street, Neutra Place, Los Angeles CA. One is on Saturday, October 7, noon to 2:00; the other on Monday, demolition. First, get all the facts about the project here. Next, take this very short City survey asking for your opinion on the building's future. Next, if you can, show up at the presentation of options today, Monday, September 25, Durham Armory, 220 Foster Street. The City Council takes up the matter for the first time on November 9.

Vinny Petrarca and Katherine Hogan of Tonic Design of Raleigh won the 2017 Kamphoefner Prize from AIA North Carolina, the organization's highest honor for Modernist architecture. If you don't know who Henry Kamphoefner was, he's the reason there are so many Modernist houses in the state. He and his wife Mabel created this Prize, which

October 9, from 6:00 to 9:00p.

NC State College of Design's Fall Lecture Schedule.

Thursday, October 12, 730pm. The ModHomes Realty Architecture Movie Series opens at the Jim Hunt Library, Raleigh, with Eero Saarinen: The Architect Who Saw The Future. Free admission to Mod Squad members! From 6:30-7:30 pm, staff from the NCSU Special Collections Research Center will show selected original photos and plans of Modernist

Modernist Renovations
Jeremy Farber 1.919.846.8952
Photo by James West

voted Best Green Architect in the Independent Weekly Best of the Triangle 2012

recognizes "a consistent integrity and devotion over an acceptable period of time to further the development of the modern movement in architecture without yielding to any of the undesirable current clichés, neomodernistic mannerisms or artless historicism that have flawed the building culture of today." You go, Henry.

AIA North Carolina also awarded Harvey Gantt the AIANC Gold Medal, the organization's highest individual honor. Gantt grew up in Charleston SC. His father was a carpenter, and his early talent for drawing led to the choice of a career in architecture. After attending Iowa State University 1960-1962, he was repeatedly denied admission into Clemson architecture. Trailer and details.

Thursday, October 19, 6-8pm, Craig, Robby, and the crew of Raleigh Architecture hosts their annual T4A, 502 South West Street, Raleigh. We welcome anyone with a huge crush on Modernist architecture. T4A's are sponsored throughout 2017 by Realtor Lesley McAdams. Details.

November 10th-11th, the Vintage Fan Fair, at the Holshouser Pavilion, State Fairgrounds, Raleigh. NCMH will have a booth, and NCMH's

new listing

Residence by Matsumoto
ITB Raleigh

Angela Roehl
Real Estate

919.995.0550

angela@angelaroehl.com

Want to join our fun crew of Modernist fans - with great benefits, like free admission to our winter movie series? Plus advance notice and discounts and trips and tours? Sign up for the NCMH Mod

University's Architecture program starting in 1961. After exhausting all administrative appeals, he took Clemson to court on charges of discrimination and won, gaining admission in 1963 and graduating in 1965. From 1965 to 1968, he interned at Odell in Charlotte, the first black architect the firm had ever hired. He graduated in 1970 from MIT with a Masters in Architecture and became founding partner of Gantt Huberman in Charlotte in 1971. Gantt was until recently the most politically active architect in North Carolina. He was on the Charlotte City Council from 1974 to 1983; the Mayor of Charlotte from 1983 to 1987. In 1990 and 1996, he ran unsuccessfully against incumbent North Carolina Senator Jesse Helms in two highly polarized races. Barack Obama was a volunteer for his campaign in 1996.

George Smart is one of the speakers. We'll be offering Mod Squad memberships at a discount, plus you can learn about our 2018 international trip! Details and tickets.

SarasotaMOD

Weekend, November 10-12,

celebrating the legacy of acclaimed Sarasota School architect Edward J. "Tim" Seibert, FAIA. Featuring Cocktail Parties; Presentations; Film Screening; Art Exhibition; House, Walking & Trolley Tours.

Totally immerse yourself with the MOD VIP Weekend Pass: 8 Events $315 (Regularly $355). Download MOD Schedule. Buy Tickets.

Squad! Joining has been the same low price since 2008, but that's going to change in 2018, so grab one now!

Shop at AmazonSmile
and Amazon will make a donation to:
North Carolina
Modernist Houses

NCMH's 2018 trip to Berlin and Zurich and Basel has just one place left, for a female sharing a room (save $$$ from the single rate). Details. To inquire, call George Smart 919.740.7407 as registration must be done manually at this point.

SAVED - It was #2 on the NCMH endangered list. The 1949 Lustron at 3612 Buffaloe Road, Raleigh, was moved to Haywood Street in downtown Raleigh! Many thanks to Virginia Faust and the City of Raleigh. More about Lustrons. Article from the News and Observer.

Innovative Concepts from the 2003 World
Trade Center
Site Memorial
Competition

9/11
MEMORIAL VISIONS

LESTER J. LEVINE

Author Lester Levine presents "9/11 Memorial Visions" at The Forest at Duke, Monday, November 13th at 2 PM in the Auditorium. Free, registration required before 9/29. Contact 919-433-2385 marketing@forestduke.org listing name, address and phone number. In 2011, Levine spent nearly 7 months being the only person to ever review all 5,201 entries to the 2003 World Trade Center Memorial Design Competition. He then spent the next 4 years seeking and interviewing entry creators on their response to 9/11 and the evolving concept of a memorial. The majority of the ideas would be considered Modernist.

Now on USModernist Radio: Thomas Bena and Mollie Doyle, stars and creators of the new documentary One Big Home. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android and Windows PC's via Libsyn.

They are thinking about destroying what's left of Paul Rudolph's Shoreline Apartments
in Buffalo NY.

Durham art and photography

collectors Frank Konhaus and Ellen Cassilly have put their entire art and photography collection online.

A house that can unfold itself in ten minutes. Hat tip to Frank Konhaus.

Laura Massino Smith, a great friend of NCMH, is featured on CNN about her architecture tours in LA.

Copyright © 2008-2017, Triangle Modernist Archive, Inc., a 501C3 nonprofit educational archive dba North Carolina Modernist Houses (NCMH) and US Modernist. All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails? You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.