CONNECTIONS
81.2

A 3-day architectural workshop
May 18-20, 2018
to re-imagine 81.2 acres in Raleigh, NC

DAY 1
Opening Lectures
CAM Raleigh. 5:30-8pm
An evening of inspiring talks from five New York planners, architects and landscape architects responsible for monumental urban design projects across the globe. These talks are open to the public and are designed to inspire those who live, work, and play in Raleigh, to be bold and forward-thinking in the development of this growing metropolis.
open to the public

DAY 2
Design Workshop
Citrix. 8:30am-6:30pm
A day-long architectural workshop with teams of architects from North Carolina, exploring future possibilities for the sites where Central Prison and The Governor Morehead School are located, on 812 acres north of Dix Park. Consideration will be given to Raleigh’s economy, connectivity, and design – for the good of its people and its environment.
by registration only

DAY 3
Ideas Presentation
NCSU Burns Auditorium
12:30-3:30pm
A presentation and discussion of workshop results, including team visions for the sites and connections to neighboring properties and beyond. Invited guests will include the design community, civic officials, developers, property owners and the public – especially young professionals making Raleigh their home. The goal is for resulting conversations to continue after the presentations.
open to the public
