The George Matsumoto Prize

Submissions now open for the 2018 George Matsumoto Prize, North Carolina's highest honor exclusively for new residential Modernist design. Created by NCMH in 2012, the Prize recognizes excellence in honor of George Matsumoto FAIA, one of North Carolina's most celebrated architects. The Prize competition is open to new single-family Modernist houses in the state built in the last five years. This year's esteemed Matsumoto Prize Jury is Deborah Berke, Phil Freelon, Joel Turkel, Harry Wolf, Edward Lalonde, Susan Saarinen, and Alexandra Lange. Details here.

New on USModernist Radio: USModernist Radio goes to Palm Springs each February for the incredibly popular Modernism Week. It's a fascinating array of sunshine, architecture, lectures, parties, tours, exhibits, food, fashion, and you can even order martinis for breakfast. Yes, you can do that anywhere but you'll feel glamorous doing it in Palm Springs. USModernist Radio's George Smart taped several shows with keynote speakers and other special guests who make Modernism Week a blast.

Today George welcomes Sarah Jane Stone, editor and brand leader of Atomic Ranch Magazine, celebrating mid-century houses from 1940's ranch tracts to 1960's architect-designed Modernist houses. And later, you'll meet location

CONNECT- IONS 81.2

A 3-day architectural workshop
May 18-20, 2018
 to re-imagine 81.2 acres in Raleigh, NC

DAY 1
Opening Lectures
 CAM Raleigh . 5:30-8pm

An evening of inspiring talks from five New York planners, architects and landscape architects responsible for monumental urban design projects across the globe. These talks are open to the public and are designed to inspire those who live, work, and play in Raleigh, to be bold and forward-thinking in the development of this growing metropolis.

open to the public

DAY 2
Design Workshop
 Citrix . 8:30am-6:30pm

A day-long architectural workshop with teams of architects from North Carolina, exploring future possibilities for the sites where Central Prison and The Governor Morehead School are located, on 81.2 acres north of Dix Park. Consideration will be given to Raleigh's economy, connectivity, and design – for the good of its people and its environment.

by registration only

DAY 3
Ideas Presentation
 NCSU Burns Auditorium
 12:30-3:30pm

A presentation and discussion of workshop results, including team visions for the sites and connections to neighboring properties and beyond. Invited guests will include the design community, civic officials, developers, property owners and the public – especially young professionals making Raleigh their home. The goal is for resulting conversations to continue after the presentations.

open to the public
