Architecture You LOVE

Monday, June 4, 2018

North Carolina Modernist Houses (NCMH) is a 501C3 nonprofit educational archive that provides donors, volunteers, and advocates the information and organization they require to passionately engage the documentation, preservation, and promotion of residential Modernist architecture. Learn more at www.ncmodernist.org.

counted. However, if you want to vote more than once, say from a home email and a work email, that's fine. NCMH's decisions on vote eligibility are final. Vote counts will not be released; only the recipients of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. The award ceremony is July 26 at McConnell Studios in Raleigh.

Endangered Alert: Edgar Tafel was one of the last and most prominent members of Frank Lloyd Wright's Fellowship. Tafel's 1950 Alpern House at 8 Overlook Drive in Scarsdale NY was completely restored in 1997 by architect Linda Yowell. Although still in good shape (see photos), the house sold May 18 and the new owners applied immediately for demolition.

Latest Status: The Scarsdale Committee on Historic Preservation, which hears demolition requests first, turned the new owners down last week. However, the Committee only makes recommendations to the Town Board of Trustees who can, at most, delay demolition by ten months. That's important time to explore other options such as moving, modifying, or keeping the house intact. What can you do? Write the Mayor of Scarsdale, Dan Hochvert, who sits on the Board of Trustees.

USModernist Radio goes to Palm Springs each February for the incredibly popular Modernism Week. It's a fascinating array of sunshine, architecture, lectures, parties, tours, and exhibits.

USModernist Radio's George Smart was there with keynote speakers and other special guests who make Modernism Week a blast.

Nate Cormier is a Principal working Los Angeles-based Rios Clementi Hale Studios. He discusses the new public space in downtown Palm Springs, a wonderful area that will include the Big Marilyn as well as Frey and Kocher's Aluminaire House. Michelle Delk is a Partner, Landscape Architect and ASLA Discipline Director with Snøhetta, an architecture and design firm that has garnered international acclaim for projects including the Bibilioteca Alexandrina in Alexandria, Egypt, the expansion of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, Norwegian National Opera and Ballet in Oslo, and the Jim Hunt Library in Raleigh NC. She discusses the design of the Willamette Falls Riverwalk in Oregon and how landscape architecture inspires us in ways most people don't realize.

USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android devices and PC's. See past episodes.

The exhibition Design Duet is up at the Gregg Museum at NC State in Raleigh through September 9. In the early 1960s, Robert Black and Ormond Sanderson's Strawvalley complex presented furniture, lighting, and design by such well known architect/designers as Mies van der Rohe, Harry Bertoia, Eero Saarinen, Marcel Breuer, and Le Corbusier. Black and Sanderson were not only among the first to introduce modern design to southern consumers, but they were also major artists in their own right.
