Jim Olson blends straight, clean architectural lines and curving natural scenery with such ease that one forgets they weren't always in harmony. Over the course of a career spanning nearly fifty years Olson established a reputation for thoughtfully considered buildings, evident in projects that suit and enhance their locations in Mexico, Southeast Asia, and the Pacific Northwest.

MODERNIST RADIO

ARCHITECTURE YOU LOVE

Serial Modernist: Michael LaFetra bought a Modernist house. Then another. Then another. As far as we can tell, he may be the foremost collector of Modernist houses in the country with houses designed by Quincy Jones, John Lautner, Rudolph Schindler, Frank Gehry, Richard Neutra, Paul Williams, Pierre Koenig, Ray Kappe, and more. And dropping by the studio, it's a special reunion of Lulu and the Lounge Lizards, with Linda Smith as lead singer, Richard Tazwell on piano, David Shore on drums, and Jeff Brown on Sax. USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android devices and PC's. See past episodes.

Endangered Alert: Edgar Tafel was one of the last and most prominent members of Frank Lloyd Wright's Fellowship. Tafel's 1950 Alpern House at 8 Overlook Drive in Scarsdale NY was completely restored in 1997 by architect Linda Yowell. Although still in good shape (see photos), the house sold May 18 and the new owners applied immediately for demolition. The Town Board of Trustees can, at most, delay demolition by ten months. That's important time to explore other options such as moving, modifying, or keeping the house intact. What can you do? Write the Mayor of Scarsdale, Dan Hochvert, who sits on the Board of Trustees.
