Raleigh Architecture (Craig Kerins and Robby Johnston) swept the AIA North Carolina 2018 Residential Design Awards last week, taking three of six for the Parks Residence, Hungry Neck Residence, and Chappell-Smith Residence, photos above. Also receiving residential design awards: in situ studio (Erin Sterling Lewis and Matt Griffith) for the Nolintha Residence, Tonic Design (Katherine Hogan and Vinny Petrarca) for the Hillcrest Residence, and SILO AR+D for the Hillside Rock house. Bob Thomas won the prestigious Kamphoefner Prize for exemplary career achievement in Modernist design. Photos by Keith Isaacs.

Is your business (food, art, architecture, construction, furniture, fixtures) looking for customers who love good design? Up to 200 people attend our monthly design parties. The next one could be at your office or studio - or at a client location showing off your work. Email Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

Last call: Modernism Week in Palm Springs, February 19-24:

If you're into architecture, you don't want to miss USModernist's wildly popular annual trip to Palm Springs for Modernism Week. There's no other place in America with as many mid-century Modern houses per square mile with thousands of Modernist houses and buildings. There's our own free private open bar, available every afternoon and early evening when we aren't touring. Airfare included! Plus, free Uber around town! And an exclusive ticket to USModernist's first benefit party at the Kirk Douglas House! Pretty sweet, eh? The registration deadline is 5pm EST tomorrow Tuesday, October 23. Just 2 seats left. Details.

Tuesday, November 6, 7pm: One Big Home, part of the ModHomes Architecture Movie Series, Alamo Drafthouse, Raleigh. Thomas Bena, a filmmaker and carpenter in Martha's Vineyard takes off his tool belt and over ten years documents homeowners and builders and the community as giant McMansions take over the tranquil island. Afterwards, we will have Q&A with Thomas Bena via Facetime! And of course, door prizes!

The Alamo Drafthouse has a full bar, over 50 draft beers, a restaurant menu (the food is great), and service at your movie seat or in their huge lobby. Mod Squad Terrazzo Level members get in free until capacity is reached, so get there early and relax - there are only 100 seats! General public, $11/person. Hang out afterwards in the lobby and catch up with friends! Sponsored by Sarah Sonke of ModHomes Realty, NC State University Libraries, and in situ studio. Details.

September 29 - October 6, 2019

Modernism Week, the organization, has a new Europe cruise centered around midcentury modern design, architecture, art, and culture. ModernismWeek@Sea sounds pretty sweet, but by the time you read this, it may be sold out.

Behind every world class Modernist architect there are only a few builders who really know WTH they are doing. John de la Vaux was John Lautner's go-to builder. He could translate anything from paper to structure and not sacrifice the design. He died at 106, the very last of Lautner's original builders - and the best. This incredible duo produced the Carling, the Harvey, Harpel 1 and 2, the Mid Town School, Gootgeld, and Lautner's most famous house for many years (until the Sheats Goldstein came along), the Chemosphere, shown above.

Jonathan Skow, Modernist homeowner and co-founder of Trina Turk Designs with his wife Trina Turk, died at 55. Hat tip to Alan Hess.

Thursday, November 8, 6-8pm, join Jason Queen at the Ware Townhomes, 400 Chavis Way, Raleigh. Party hosted at the Transfer Company next door, a 43,000sf food hall with Videri Chocolate Factory, Locals Seafood, Burial Beer, Benchwarmers Bagels, Saxapahaw General Store, Sushinara, Captain Cookie and the Milkman, Che Empanadas, and more! Thirst4Architecture is our free monthly party for anyone with a huge crush on Modernist architecture - sponsored throughout 2018 by Modernist realtor Angela Roehl. Details.
