News and Events

Tuesday, November 6, 7pm: One Big Home, part of the ModHomes Architecture Movie Series, Alamo Draffhouse, Raleigh. Thomas Bena, a filmmaker and carpenter in Martha's Vineyard takes off his tool belt and over ten years documents homeowners and builders and the community as giant McMansions take over the tranquil island. Afterwards, we will have Q&A with Thomas Bena via Facetime! And of course, door prizes! The Alamo Draffhouse has a full bar, over 50 draft beers, a restaurant menu (the food is great), and service at your comfy recliner movie seat or in their huge lobby. Mod Squad Terrazzo

Is your business (food, art, architecture, construction, furniture, fixtures) looking for customers who love good design? Up to 200 people attend our monthly design parties. The next one could be at your office or studio - or at a client location showing off your work. Email Rebekah Laney, rebekah@ncmodernist.org.

On the same night, at the same time, and about a mile away, in situ studio (Erin Sterling Lewis and Matt Griffith) celebrates eight years in business with an open party at their office, in appreciation of their clients, collaborators, and projects. RSVP.

USModernist and NCMH went to Phoenix this past weekend to explore their incredible Modernist architecture. Here we are at the David Wright House, designed by his dad, Frank Lloyd Wright.

We have a few spots that have opened up for the Denmark trip and the Palm Springs trip (with a few caveats and accompanying discounts). Contact George Smart 919 740 8407 starting Tuesday morning.

Now on USModernist Radio: We have the privilege of talking with design podcast host Frances Anderton from LA! You have heard her since 2002 every Tuesday on KCRW and the podcast DNA - which stands for Design N Architecture. She is also a full-time producer of KCRW's national and local current affairs shows To The Point and Which Way, LA? We've been fans for years of her insightful stories and interviews that inspire design fans nationwide. USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. New book available November 20: Chair Anatomy / Design and Construction, by James Orrom. Need a place to sit? Designers and architects, whose work revolves around space, comfort, and function, have grappled with making the perfect—or most unusual—chairs for centuries. Most chairs, however, are not one-offs but are manufactured in large quantities, to be shipped around the world, displayed, and marketed. Through the painstaking work of deconstructing and reducing chairs to their constituent parts, Chair Anatomy gets to the heart of more than fifty iconic designs.
