ModHomes Architecture Movie Series, Double Feature, Tuesday, January 8, 7pm, at the Alamo Drafthouse, Raleigh. Glenn Murcutt: A Spirit of Place explores the life and art of Australia's most famous living architect. Murcutt's extraordinary international reputation rests on international awards (including the prestigious Pritzker Prize) putting Australian architecture on the world map. And yet, by choice, he has never built outside his own country.

But first, it's Rendered Small, the story of the private collection of American folk art buildings that have been meticulously curated and displayed by Steven Burke & Randy Campbell in Hillsborough, North Carolina. Stay for Q&A after the movie with collectors Steven &

Randy plus producers Marsha Gordon and Louis Cherry. The Alamo Drafthouse has a full bar, over 50 draft beers, a restaurant menu (the food is great), and service at your movie seat or in their huge lobby. Mod Squad Terrazzo Level members get in free until capacity is reached, so get there early and relax! General public, $11/person. Hang out afterwards in the lobby and catch up with friends!

Sponsored by Sarah Sonke of ModHomes Realty, NC State University Libraries, and in situ studio. Details.

This just in: We have two tickets for the long-ago-sold-out USModernist trip to Palm Springs for Modernism Week February 19-24! If interested, review the details here then call George Smart at 919.740.8407.

New on USModernist Radio: Every fall, the New York Architecture and Design Film Festival (ADFF) premieres the best new documentaries of the year. Host George Smart was on the scene talking with the people behind the new movies.

Ultan Guilfoyle's award-winning films have been shown on PBS and HBO in the US and the BBC, ITV and Channel 4 in the UK. His latest film is Frank Gehry: Building Justice where architect Gehry, philanthropist George Soros, and students at SCI-ARC and Yale re-design prison architecture for the complex social, political, racial, and aesthetic issues behind incarceration.

Paul Clemence is co-producer with Aksel Stasny of the film Two Pianos, about the Italian architect Renzo Piano. The film captures the masterful use of light, carefully orchestrated relationship between inside and outside, the seamless connection to the surroundings, and an exacting craftsmanship.

Alan Hess is an architect and author who has shed light on many forgotten and neglected styles of postwar American modernist architecture. The Los Angeles Conservancy named him "The preeminent authority on Southern California Modernism." Hess is one of the stars in a Jake and Tracey Gorst documentary on architect Albert Frey, the first American to work for French superstar architect Le Corbusier, in the film Frey Part I, The Architectural Envoy.

Hat tips to Daniel Perrin, Virginia Faust, and Maria Wall.

Robert (Bob) George Miller of Charlotte died January 1 at the age of 88. With a Bachelor of Architecture degree from North Carolina State University in 1953 he became a licensed architect in 1956. Following graduation, he worked for Odell Associates and helped design Charlottetown Mall, the first enclosed shopping mall in the South. In 1962, he left Odell and joined Ferebee Walters & Associates. After retiring from there, Bob worked at Camas Associates Architects actively right up until his death. NCMH interviewed him in 2017.

Remember the old AIA Tower in downtown Raleigh? It's now an amazing escape room with three levels of challenge. Find out more here. When you register, use the discount code NCMH; you get a 15% discount, and NCMH gets a 15% donation. it's not easy to re-purpose a 1938 water tower but these folks have done it!

Sunday, January 27 at 3pm. Architect Frank Harmon speaks and has a booksigning of his new book, Native Places, at Scuppernong Books, 304 South Elm Street, Greensboro.

ModHomes Architecture Movie Series, Tuesday, February 5, 7pm, at the Alamo Drafthouse, Raleigh. Big Time: Bjarke Ingels explores the hottest architect on the planet right now. With major projects spanning the globe, he's the new Frank Lloyd Wright (minus the arrogance). The Alamo Drafthouse has a full bar, over 50 draft beers, a restaurant menu (the food is great), and service at your movie seat or in their huge lobby. Mod Squad Terrazzo Level members get in free until capacity is reached, so get there early and relax! General public, $11/person. Hang out afterwards in the lobby and catch up with friends! Sponsored by Sarah Sonke of ModHomes Realty, NC State University Libraries, and in situ studio. Details.

Thursday, February 28, 6-8pm, join Will Alphin of REdesign.build, at the new 926 Tower Street Project, Raleigh. It's the first of four new Modernist houses on that street. Thirst4Architecture is our free monthly party for anyone with a huge crush on Modernist architecture - sponsored throughout 2019 by Modernist realtor Angela Roehl. Details.
