ARCHITECTURE YOU LOVE

New! Vivian Howard and artist Ben Knight of Chef & the Farmer. Kinston is about as typical Eastern North Carolina as you can get. Kinston never had a really great restaurant, but that changed when chef Vivian Howard and artist Ben Knight came to town in 2006 from New York and opened Chef & the Farmer and later the Boiler Room and Benny's Big Time. Then there was their PBS TV series A Chef's Life, which won two Daytime Emmys and a Peabody award. They are also Modernist homeowners! We first came across this talented couple when their Modernist house in Deep Run NC won a George Matsumoto Prize for North Carolina residential Modernist design. Host George Smart and guest co-host, NCModernist's Rebekah Laney, chat with Ben in the studio and Vivian from her car! USModernist Radio is sponsored by Angela Roehl, your special real estate agent for Modernist houses. Listen via iTunes. Listen on Android devices and PC's. View past and future show descriptions.

Only 10 seats left! Saturday, July 20, 3pm to 930pm, Kinston Arts District / Chef and the Farmer Dinner, Kinston NC. You've watched Chef Vivian Howard and her husband Ben Knight on the PBS show A Chef's Life. You've heard about their world-famous restaurant, the Chef and the Farmer, a center point for a revitalized downtown Kinston with interesting galleries, stores, and pubs to visit. Join the NCModernist crew as we travel to Kinston on our air-conditioned, wifi-equipped luxury bus! You'll experience great food and the fun company of fellow Modernist travelers interested in art, architecture, and a wonderful multi-course dinner with wine at the Chef and the Farmer. NEWS

DID YOU KNOW

Mike Welton on Lecorbusier's last design.

New to the USModernist Magazine Library: The Architectural Index. Created by Ervin (Erv) J. Bell (1925-2015), the Architectural Index was a unique and invaluable resource in a time when the internet did not exist. The yearly publication was one of the only ways to easily search for articles across major US architectural publications. After stopping the print edition in 2001, Bell took the publication online. By 2012, Google and other search engines made the Index obsolete. Many thanks to Erv's partner Jerry Moore for making the collection available. Help us locate years 2001 to 2012 (we pay for shipping!).

The Welbeck Parking Deck in London is going bye-bye. The brutalist car park will become a hotel. Hat tip to Leilani Carter.
